1   Setting up a Spark instance

Download and install a Spark instance.

2   Word Count (3pt)

Write a Spark script that outputs the count number of each word. In the implementation, you need to transform all words as lower case and filter out all the punctuations.

Run your program over the input data 'pg100.txt'

What to submit: Submit the printout of the output file and the source code.